

EduWorks

PEP Grade 5 Language Arts – Advanced Practice Pack

This advanced PEP-aligned Language Arts pack is designed to challenge Grade 5 students through higher-order comprehension, grammar application, and structured writing tasks.

SECTION 1: READING COMPREHENSION (ADVANCED)

Passage: Every afternoon, after completing his homework, Kareem volunteers at the community library. He helps younger children select books, assists elderly visitors with reading forms, and organises donated materials. Although the work is unpaid, Kareem believes that serving others strengthens his character and prepares him for leadership roles in the future.

1. Where does Kareem volunteer?
2. List two tasks Kareem performs at the library.
3. Why does Kareem choose to volunteer even though he is not paid?
4. What does the word 'organises' most nearly mean as used in the passage?
5. Identify one character trait Kareem demonstrates. Provide evidence from the text.
6. What is the main idea of the passage?
7. Which sentence best supports the idea that Kareem is responsible?
8. Suggest a suitable title for the passage and explain your choice.
9. How might Kareem's volunteer work benefit the community?
10. What lesson can young readers learn from Kareem's actions?

SECTION 2: GRAMMAR & LANGUAGE SKILLS (ADVANCED)

1. Identify the subject and predicate in this sentence: Kareem volunteers at the community library.
2. Rewrite the sentence in the past tense: Kareem helps younger children select books.
3. Underline the conjunction in the sentence: Kareem volunteers, although the work is unpaid.
4. Replace the underlined word with a suitable synonym: Kareem assists elderly visitors.
5. Write the plural form of: library, child, visitor.
6. Choose the correct word: Their / There / They're organising donated materials.
7. Combine the sentences using a conjunction: Kareem volunteers. He gains leadership skills.
8. Identify whether the sentence is simple, compound, or complex: Kareem believes that serving others builds character.
9. Rewrite the sentence using correct punctuation: kareem volunteers after school
10. Explain why proper grammar is important in formal writing.

SECTION 3: WRITING (HIGHER-ORDER TASK)

Write a well-organised paragraph about the importance of community service. Your writing should include:

- A clear opening statement
- At least two supporting details
- A concluding sentence

Use correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling.

ANSWER KEY (SUGGESTED)

RC: Answers should reference the library, helping others, leadership and service.

Grammar: Accept reasonable responses demonstrating correct usage and explanation.

Writing: Assess using organisation, content, grammar and clarity.